High flying entertainers rock Moranbah

More than 1,500 people attended the recently held 4U2 family concert to help raise funds for the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital Foundation and the RACQ CQ Rescue Service.

The day showcased local and National artists, with headline Australian acts Shannon Noll and the Choir Boys entertaining the audience with their past number one hits.

The event successfully raised over $60,000 for the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital Foundation and the RACQ CQ Rescue Service.

Mark Filtness, General Manager Broadmeadow Mine said BMA was proud to sponsor the 4U2 family concert and thanked everyone who played a part in the success of the day. "It was great to see so many families enjoying the day and generously supporting the two organisations that provide essential services to our employees, their families and the community."
